

FRIENDSHIP AND SUPPORT

RECREATION

TRAINING

RVW has literally changed my life by opening up the world to new lifelong friends and travels.

RVing Women is a support network for women who share a love of RVing and travel. The friendships we build span international boundaries.

I have met a lot of people and have gone a lot of places I would not have gone to if not for RVW.

Our members have diverse backgrounds and wide-ranging interests. The only requirement for membership is that you are a woman interested in RVing.

I am having the time of my life meeting RVing Women and going to RVW events.

As a member of RVW, you can participate in chapter and national events wherever you go. You will meet other women, enjoy just-for-fun activities, learn about wonderful places to visit and share information about caring for your RV and staying safe on the road. RVW also arranges exclusive tours and escorted caravans that take the hassle out of planning special trips.

The testimonials in this brochure were taken from responses to a survey of our members.

I learned a lot I needed to know that I didn't know I needed to know.

Our members share driving tips and information about RV maintenance and safety at rallies and events, through our bi-monthly RVing Women magazine, and online at www.rvingwomen.org. RVW also offers training events in various locations throughout the year and at our annual RVW convention.

After just a year of membership, I wonder why I waited so long to join.

ON THE ROAD

As a member of RVing Women, you are welcome to participate in chapter and national events wherever you go. Rallies and get-togethers are held throughout the year. Some are planned around special events, such as the Kentucky Derby, LPGA golf tournament and Albuquerque Balloon Fiesta.

Our RVing Women annual membership directory helps you locate other women when you are traveling. Many RVW members offer overnight space and hospitality for members.

The RVW membership packet includes a colorful decal you can place on your rig to help other members identify you when you are traveling.

RV parks, campgrounds and RV service providers located across the United States and Canada offer discounts to members of RVing Women. Details are published in our annual membership directory and on our website at www.rvingwomen.org.

RVing Women is an international support network organized solely for the woman RV enthusiast.

RVing Women, established in 1991, is a national nonprofit 501(c)7 corporation organized and operated exclusively for social, recreational and educational purposes. Our mission is to build a supportive network of women RVers so that any woman can have the opportunity to enjoy the RV lifestyle in a joyful, safe and knowledgeable manner with other women RVers.
